++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry and cold start, before turning wet on the weekend.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some remaining daytime wintry showers continue in the east, but soon fade to leave a largely clear and dry night. Cold, locally very cold over snow cover, with widespread frost and a risk of isolated fog patches. Minimum temperature -6 deg C (21 deg F).

Thursday:
A frosty start, with some freezing fog patches slow to clear locally. A fine, cold and sunny day then follows, though turning windier later. Further frost is then likely overnight. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Dry with sunny spells Friday and Saturday, feeling cold with overnight frost. Some showers Saturday night, before becoming wet and windy Sunday with further snow likely. Windy throughout this period.
